

Frequently Asked Questions:

How can I become a member of Zion Lutheran Church?

- To become a member, contact the church office and set up a meeting with the pastor. Adult instruction classes are available twice a year for those coming to Zion from a non-Lutheran background. If you are transferring from another Lutheran Church Missouri Synod congregation, you should contact your current pastor and request a transfer.

How do I arrange for a baptism?

- Contact the church office and schedule a date for the baptism. The pastor will then contact you to discuss further details.

How do I reserve the church for a wedding?

- Contact the church office to attain a copy of Zion's wedding policy. Weddings in the church sanctuary are only available for current members of Zion. The pastor will then contact you to discuss further details.

How do I schedule the use of the building for a personal or ministry event?

- Contact the church office to check availability and schedule the event. There are fees involved for some rentals.

What does my child need to do to be confirmed at Zion Lutheran Church?

- A confirmation meeting is held every spring to discuss the upcoming confirmation instruction classes. Students of Zion Lutheran school will receive instruction during the school day. Public school students will receive instruction on Sunday nights from 6:00-8:00 p.m.

How do I enroll my child in Zion Lutheran School?

- Contact the school office for enrollment forms and information. Both the school and preschool host open houses for parents looking for more information. For open house dates, check your weekly church bulletin, contact the school office, or visit our webpage at www.zionbeaver.com

I would like to join a home Bible study. Who should I contact?

- Zion has several Bible studies which meet in members homes. If you are interested in attending a home Bible study, contact one of the Pastors and they will put you in touch with one of Zion's members. Zion also has Bible study on Sunday mornings after church starting at 10:15 in the school cafeteria.
